Re: Corpac v. Rubin & Rothman, LLC, No. 10-cv-4165 (ADS)(ETB)

Dear Judge Spatt:

My office, together with CAMBA Legal Services, Inc., represents Patrick Sejour, a class member in the above-referenced class action filed under the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), 15 U.S.C. § 1692, et seq.

I am writing to respond to the letter filed today by Robert Arleo, Esq. (ECF# 48), in which he requests a hearing concerning (a) his conflict of interest with William F. Horn, Esq., and (b) the fact that I stand by my characterization, made to Judge Bianco in 2010, of the no-notice nationwide settlement of the FDCPA class action in Gravina v. Nationwide Enterprise Systems.

Mr. Arleo is making his letter-motion to distract the Court from the problems with his settlement with Mr. Horn and the problems that conflict out Mr. Horn from representing the class. Mr. Arleo will have an opportunity to respond at length to Mr. Sejour's brief by September 7, 2012, as set forth in the Court's Order (ECF# 36). For Mr. Arleo to crowd up the docket with countless letter-motions and asides – as he has done here – is an abuse of the Court system.

In addition, Mr. Arleo apparently intends to continue raising my letter to Judge Bianco two years ago in an attempt to paper over Mr. Horn's conflict of interest and the defamatory claims by Mr. Horn that my co-counsel and I have engaged in illegal "kickbacks." If Mr. Arleo had any good-faith objections about my letter from 2010, he should have raised them two years ago before Judge Bianco. Moreover, in an apparent attempt to mislead this Court, Mr. Arleo fails to quote the full definition from Merriam-Webster and intentionally misquotes the section he does quote. See <http://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/payoff>.

Respectfully,

Brian L. Bromberg
